

Peace with Justice Sunday This Sunday, "Peace with Justice Sunday, is a special giving Sunday in the UMC. As part of the UMC Social Platform, the programs seek peaceful solutions, by creating and supporting peace-related ministries, and learning about peaceful, just efforts around the world. Our Social Principles call UMCs to love our enemies, seek justice, and serve as reconcilers of conflict. The group insists that the first moral duty of all nations is to work together to resolve by peaceful means every dispute that arises between or among them.

Through your Faith Promise pledge, you have already given to this ministry. If you would like to give additional monies, please add "Peace with Justice Sunday" to your memo line.

Donations of new and gently used children's books are needed by Thursday, June 30. Books can be dropped off in the red bucket at the church office. Along with providing donated books, the mission team will use Faith Promise funds to purchase non-perishable lunch items to feed fifteen children for five days in June. If you cannot drop off books at the church office, please contact Robin Pounds, 404-918-0069, to arrange a pick-up. Thanks for helping our mission team support Wellroot's programs so that more foster children, teens, young adults, and families in North Georgia can benefit from a healthy, stable, and safe home.
